LANDMARK HISTORIC PROPERTY, THE WOLFEBORO INN, IN WOLFEBORO, NH, RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS AWARD

WOLFEBORO, NH March 2010 – Hay Creek Hospitality announces that The Wolfeboro Inn on Lake Winnepesaukee, in Wolfeboro, NH has received the Lakes Region Chamber of Commerce “Golden Trowel Award”. Karen Beranger, General Manager, accepted the award at a recent luncheon.

The award is given annually to commercial properties that have undergone extensive renovation and betterment for the community. The Wolfeboro Inn was selected to receive the award after completion of their multi-million dollar renovation.

The Wolfeboro Inn features 44 luxury guest rooms & suites with flat panel LCD televisions, plush pillow top beds with exquisite linens and down comforters surrounded by distinctive fabrics and beautiful furnishings. The Inn offers state of the art meeting and conference facilities for corporate meetings and private functions. The full service boutique hotel caters to business travelers, visitors to Brewster Academy, and destination leisure clientele.

Included in the major renovation project was “Wolfe’s Tavern” a historic Pub that has re-opened to popular and critical acclaim. The totally redesigned bar and restaurant embraces the best produce, meats, game & seafood available. “Wolfe’s Tavern” offers the casual yet sophisticated experience of an authentic New England Pub. Dining is available outdoors on the deck overlooking Wolfeboro Bay, or inside in front of a charming wood burning fireplace. “Wolfe’s Tavern” features the largest selection of wines by the glass, over 100 beers, as well as a stylish menu of traditional and avant-garde cocktails. Hotel guests and local patrons have been surprised and delighted by the new look and feel of the property.

The Wolfeboro Inn and Wolfe’s Tavern are located at 90 North Main Street, Wolfeboro, NH.
