THE WOLFEBORO INN, ON LAKE WINNIPESAUKEE, IN HISTORIC WOLFEBORO, NH CHOSEN AS NEW ENGLAND TRAVEL MAGAZINE EDITORS PICK FOR 2010

WOLFEBORO, NH March 2010 – Hay Creek Hospitality announces that The Wolfeboro Inn on Lake Winnepesaukee, in Wolfeboro, NH www.wolfeboroinn.com has been chosen as a preferred lodging property in the 2010 edition of New England Travel Magazine. This prestigious recognition is earned by offering an upscale and unique venue for vacationers planning their summer travel. Says New England Travel Magazine, “It isn’t often you find an Inn that has water views (Lake Winnepesaukee) in walking distance to a pedestrian-friendly town center (Wolfeboro).” The Wolfeboro Inn not only has incredible views of the “Big Lake”, but also offers guests their own private beach directly on the Inn’s grounds. Bring your boat – the Inn has private docks available. The historic town of Wolfeboro, also known as “The Oldest Summer Resort in America” has numerous unique shops and boutiques and a waterfront park that offers relaxing benches, concerts, and dining options – all a casual stroll away from the Inn. “There is plenty to do for an extended vacation stay – we often help guests with an itinerary that includes “local” picks and “can’t miss” picks”, says General Manager Karen Beranger, “We also plan welcome receptions to help you get orientated with all that the Lakes Region has to offer”.

No trip to Wolfeboro is complete without a ride aboard The Winnepesaukee Belle, a 150 passenger side paddle wheel boat, that operates from The Wolfeboro Town Docks offering guests and day trippers a 90 minute excursion at 10:30am and 1:30pm Sunday through Friday. Get up close to the mansions, loons, and beautiful scenery. The Belle is owned and operated by The Wolfeboro Inn and is available for private charter as well.
